DESCRIPTION

A unit of Infernal Guard Immortals has 5 or more models. Immortals are clad in Infernal Armour. Each Immortal carries an Ashsteel Greatweapon, a daemon-bound artifact of pure malice.

IMMORTAL CAPTAIN

The leader of this unit is an Immortal Captain. Captains of the Infernal Guard Immortals carry an Ashsteel Greadweapon, a Pyrelock Pistol and a Naphta Bomb. The Captain of the Immortals can make 3 attacks with their Ashsteel Greatweapons instead of 2.

ICON BEARERS

Models in this unit may be Icon Bearers carrying an Icon of Domination. If the unit contains any Icon

Bearers, you may ignore any penalties to their Bravery score caused by enemy abilities.

DRUMMER

Models in this unit may be Drummers. If the unit containing any Drummers runs, they are driven on by the drums' relentless, measured beat. You may add 1" to the result of any run and charge roll you make for the unit.

ABILITIES

Infernal Armour: Baleful magic is worked into the fabric of Infernal Armour by the Daemonsmiths of the Zharr Goroth, making it all but impervious to normal weapons. Models wearing Infernal Armour ignore rend of -1.

Naphta Bomb: Once per battle, a model with a Naphta Bomb can hurl it at the enemy in the shooting phase. To do so, pick a target unit within 6" and roll a dice. On a 2+ that unit suffers D3 mortal wounds.

Pyrelock Weapons: Pyrelock ammunition contains hungry pyre-spirits which seek to ravage the flesh of the foe as they are unleashed. When using Pyrelock Pistols to make a shooting attack, any wound roll of a 6 inflicts double damage.

Ashsteel Greatweapons: The vicious daemon bound within an Ashsteel Greatweapon yearns to tear out the soul of its victims. If a model carrying an Ashsteel Greatweapon rolls a 6 or more to wound, the attack deals double damage.
